PRESENTS...

THE SKINN OF THE TENTH THORNTON WILDER

Directed by Kathy Drum

Wilder's timeless allegory about the life of mankind. The play centers around the Antrobus family from Excelsior New Jersey. This epic story follows George Antrobus (the inventor of the wheel among other things) and his family through history, from The Ice Age to the great flood and on to the end of the World War. A true classic of the American stage.
